"In earnest desire to justify your generous confidence and a strong regard for the good and welfare of our State, inspire me with the firm resolve to spare no effort and to avoid no other consequences in the endeavor faithfully to discharge the duties that will be incumbent on me if your choice shall prove to be the choice of the people also. I plead for you and the thousands for whom you act with them, to this end, the exercise of patriotism, to the best, purest and most exalted patriotism."—Gen. Connor's Acceptance.

COLONEL SMITH'S LETTER.

The public are aware that while the Democratic organs have failed to contradict a single statement of Smith's open letter to Gen. Roberts they have persistently assailed the writer with epithets and have constantly represented the letter as abusive and objectionable. Within a few days the Bangor Commercial has denounced it as "dirty and scurrilous letter" and the Portland Eve. Exp. has referred to it as a "scurrilous and grossly insulting document." In view of these disinterested representations we have reproduced the full text of the letter on our first page to-day for the benefit of any who have failed to peruse that truthful and damaging review of Gen. Roberts political record, and in order that those who have read it before may scrutinize it again in search of the offensive characteristics falsely imputed to it by the Democratic papers.

First as to its style and temper we claim that the letter is admirably worded throughout and that if the facts stated are true they could not have been presented in more courteous or dignified language. Secondly we claim that if the statements of the letter are truthful Gen. Roberts has no claim to the support of the loyal people of Maine on his record as a patriot soldier and especially that he has no claim to the favor of the Boys in Blue, who carried our flag triumphantly through the struggle which Gen. Roberts abandoned in its most critical hour to join with the avowed and most virulent opponents of the cause for which the soldiers were perilling their lives in the field. And thirdly, we challenge Gen. Roberts, or any of his friends, to contradict or refute a single statement contained in the letter as to his record from the beginning of the war covering his retirement from the field when the country most needed his services, his affiliation with the notorious disloyalists of the State, and his constant political support of those who sought to deny the loyal soldier the suffrage which they claimed for cowardly Copperheads and who sought at every way to aid and comfort the rebels and to embarrass the Union cause.

Col. Smith has stated the case in an open and manly way, over his own name, and Gen Roberts ought to know that the soldiers of Maine, who do not admire skulking will require him to meet the arraignment in some other way than by the flinging of newspaper epithets at the writer. The letter has been for some time before the public, but thus far Gen. Roberts has not found time or opportunity to controvert a single one of its statements. By conceding their truthfulness he surrenders all shadow of claim to support as the "patriot soldier" put forward by Eben F. Pillsbury, and if he intends to make any denial or reply, the time for doing so is very limited.—We call the special attention of the Democratic candidate and his friends to the complete document as printed by us to-day, and dare them to meet it honestly and squarely. Epithets won't do, gentlemen; if you have any answer to make the people are ready to hear it.

THE FINAL RALLY.

The Republicans of Bangor will hold a final rally prior to the election, in Norombega, Friday evening next, when there should be a rousing demonstration of our readiness for the contest. Gen. John L. Swift, of Boston, a forcible and eloquent speaker, will deliver an address, and other speakers who will participate will be hereafter announced. The people of the State are looking toward Bangor, and we want to show them that we are as steadfast and zealous as in the olden time.

HOW DEBT AND TAXATION GREW BY THE DEMOCRATIC REBELLION.

The records in the Government Departments at Washington afford reliable evidence of the accumulation of the burdens borne by the people, and the economy of the Republican party in the management of the government. By comparing the revenue and expenditures of the last years of Democratic rule with those since the Republicans came into power, we shall see at a glance how the DEMOCRATIC REBELLION piled up the expenses of the government and compelled the increase of our revenues by taxation.

Net Receipts and Expenditures of the Government from 1853 to 1875.

| Year | Net Receipts. | Net Ordinary Expenditures. |
|---|---|---|
| 1856, | $74,056,690 24 | $69,271,025 70 |
| 1857, | 68,965,312 57 | 67,765,707 66 |
| 1858, | 46,655,365 36 | 74,183,270 39 |
| 1859, | 53,496,485 61 | 69,070,176 74 |
| 1860, | 56,064,607 83 | 63,120,598 19 |
| 1861 | 41,509,680 39 | 66,546,644 89 |
| 1862, | 51,932,465 43 | 474,761,818 01 |
| 1863, | 112,697,290 05 | 714,740,755 17 |
| 1864 | 264,626,771 50 | 866,422,641 77 |
| 1865, | 334,714,605 08 | 1,207,555,224 41 |
| 1866 | 558,032,620 06 | 520,809,416 90 |
| 1867 | 490,634,010 37 | 357,542,675 16 |
| 1868 | 405,638,083 32 | 377,340,284 80 |
| 1869, | 370,944,747 21 | 322,865,377 80 |
| 1870, | 411,255,427 63 | 309,653,500 75 |
| 1871, | 383,323,944 89 | 292,177,188 25 |
| 1872 | 374,166,867 86 | 277,517,962 67 |
| 1873, | 333,738,404 67 | 290,345,24[illegible] 33 |
| 1874 | 289,178,755 47 | 287,133,874 17 |
| 1875, | 288,000,031 10 | 274,623,392 84 |

It will be noticed by the above table how the expenditures rose in the first year of the rebellion more than FOUR HUNDRED MILLION dollars and increased every year that the war continued until they reached the immense sum, the last year, of nearly THIRTEEN HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS—all as the RESULT OF THE DEMOCRATIC REBELLION. Of course an increase of revenue had to follow, to effect which there was no resource but taxation of the people, but when Democrats complain of this taxation they must remember that it is THEIR work—the cost of saving the Government and Union from destruction by a DEMOCRATIC REBELLION.—Kennebec Journal.

ATTEND TO THE VOTING LISTS.

Now is the time to prepare for correction of the voting lists before the Board of Aldermen Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Every Republican should look up all cases requiring attention in his neighborhood and either take care of them himself or promptly notify the City Committee.

A DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

[From the Portland Press.]

The utter recklessness which characterizes the Democratic leaders at the present time is clearly shown in the course pursued toward Mr Blaine. In 1873 the Standard published an article charging Mr. Blaine with having acted in bad faith with the estate of A. W. Johnson, of Belfast, respecting some Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad lands. At that time Mr Hazeltine, one of the executors and a Democrat, wrote Pillsbury a letter for publication, denying the assertion of the Standard and declaring that Mr Blaine's conduct had been just and honorable, in all business transactions, and that he had done more than could ordinarily have been expected in business matters. This letter Pillsbury refused to publish. Now, with the fullest knowledge of the explicit denial of Mr. Hazeltine, Pillsbury in his open letter to Mr Blaine repeats the malicious slander. Perhaps it is possible for a man to become more disputable and despicable than Pillsbury has made himself.

BE AT HOME TO VOTE.

Our Republican friends should be careful to arrange their business so that they can be at home to vote and work on election day, and those temporarily absent should be urged to return in season. Every voter should be on hand next Monday.

THE MAINE CANVASS.

[From the Boston Journal.]

We have no reason to doubt that the card which has been is that which shall be once more, even in the pending canvass in Maine. The Republicans have certainly been fortunate in their new nominee for Governor. Gen. Connor is one of the rising young men of the State, with a splendid war record, and the confidence of all who know him in his integrity, capacity and nerve. The Democratic attempt to create ridicule by caricaturing him on the crutches necessitated by rebel bullets, has been a poor electioneering investment. The people of Maine do not see the joke—they do see something worse than ridicule in a party which at the same time degrades the retention of war issues and yet slurs a crippled soldier and goes back for its own nominations to the favorites of peace conspirators who were hand in glove with traitors in the most desperate crises of the national struggle. They cannot but regard these things as significant of parties in a State contest which is to have a specially marked bearing upon the next Presidential campaign.

It is worthy of note that the force of the election in Maine tells almost wholly upon national interests because the Republican management of the State for twenty years has been so successful and satisfactory that no real issue can be taken upon it. It is true, Gen Roberts, the Democratic candidate for Governor, has volunteered to declare his enmity to the temperance laws of the State but that will only lose him the support of some temperance Democrats; as to financial management, the enforcement of economy the equalization of taxation, the development of the resources of the State and the improvement of education and other interests, neither he nor any other Democrat dares to take any distinct issue with the Republicans. They want to get control of the State, not for its advantage in any respect, but simply for the sake of promoting the interests of the Democratic party of the country—that organization which still holds every unrepentant rebel, every foe of equal rights, every intentional repudiationist, and three-fourths of the infatuated of the country. If the people of Maine want to stir up again disorder and danger at the South, if they want to stamp continued and indefinite debasement upon our currency and to cast a most disastrous shadow over the national credit, thus deepening the gloom of every unsatisfactory feature of our present business situation, then they will consent to the defeat of Gen. Connor, or to his election by a small, discreditable majority. We look, however, for an altogether different result. We know the intelligence, the public spirit, the vigilance of the Republican masses of our sister State, and we are confident that they will once more exhilarate the country with a timely and decisive victory.

THE REPUBLICANS FORMING IN SOLID COLUMN.

[From the Kennebec Journal.]

It is evident as the election approaches that the Republicans of Maine are forming in solid and united columns to give the Democracy their annual drubbing at the polls. When we see incidents like those of the Waterville Mail pitching into the fight in downright earnest, we know it means this—the Republicans are coming out in full force. The Mail says:

"There is no evidence of wavering on either side in regard to the distinctions heretofore recognized between Republicans and Democrats. The old party lines are as rigidly drawn as ever. Those who remember the rebellion need not to be told what these lines are. The men who stood upon them during that long trial stand upon them now. There is no giving way of principle. The Pillsbury and the Emery who were so noisy then are just as noisy now; and the Roberts who resigned his commission in the darkest hour of the rebellion, is the Roberts to concentrate the entire Democratic party vote. On the other side, the Republican leaders of that day, burdened with their faults, are the leaders of the party now, hugging with their might for the Connor whose patriotism and whose wounds were then subjects of applause and of regret. No contest was ever better defined on both sides than the one before us.

We have great confidence that THE REPUBLICAN PARTY VOTE in the coming ballot WILL SHOW THAT THE REPUBLICANS have a GROWING VITALITY in Maine.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC FINANCIER.

[From the Boston Journal.]

Mr Hendricks has made an ingenious speech in Ohio, as everybody supposed he would. In fact, ingenuity in Hendricks is forte, and although it is not a statesmanlike quality, it answers very well on the stump. And so we have the spectacle of a professed hard money man playing completely into the hands of the inflationists. For instance, Mr. Hendricks maintains that what we want is, not any contraction of our paper currency, but an increase of coin on hand. The way to get that, he says, is to increase our business of all kinds, enlarge our exports over the imports, and have as much of the public debt as possible made payable at home. Then coin and paper will so closely approximate in quantity that they can be made interchangeable without injury to the business interests of the country. To this all the inflationists, from Pendleton and Cary down, shout an enthusiastic approval. "Certainly," they say "we must increase our business, and why can't we do it? Simply because we need more money. Business of all kinds is now suffering, as we have always contended, from the miserable system of contraction which has been carried out. Hence we must reverse that, make money cheaper and plenter, and then we shall realize all the hopes of Mr. Hendricks, either by returning to specie payments, or else getting along just as well without that." And so all the rag money's welcome him as a man and a brother. To this complexion come all the so-called hard money men among the Democracy of the present day. Their theories are professedly good, but they hamper them with such practical qualifications and provisos, to suit the interests of their party, that they all finally tumble into the inflation boat and go where that goes. The country is liable, indeed, if it has no other hope than in the exertions of such men.

Last year George Gifford was the plume mover at a bolt in Vassalboro' that lost the town to the Republicans. We observe now that Mr. Gifford is rewarded by a nomination from the Vassalboro' Republicans for the Legislature. From this fact we infer that all the Vassalboro' Republicans have reached that high degree of Christian advancement and development that seeks an opportunity to turn the second cheek after the first is smitten. Far be it from us to dissuade or discourage any individual or party from the highest of Christian virtue; but we must say that Gifford is about the last man to whom we should feel like turning the other cheek, and we should think that in his case a vigorous worldly disciplinary would be more in order.

THE BACK TOWNS AWAKE.—General John L. Swift and Llewellyn Powers, Esq., addressed fine audiences at Corinth, East Corinth and Kenduskeag on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and found a hearty response to their appeals for continued support of Republican principles and candidates. The people in the rural districts of Maine have always been true to the good cause and they show no signs of wavering now that the most disloyal and dangerous men in the Democratic party are seeking to gain power in the State.

HON. J. T. Grant, present Mayor of Ellsworth, was nominated for Representative to the Legislature on Tuesday by the Republicans of that city.

THE RALLY AT DEXTER. The Republicans of Dexter rallied in large numbers on Monday evening at Town Hall, where addresses were made by Hon. James G. Blaine and General Plaisted. Our correspondents write that the most gratifying spirit of earnestness was manifested, and that speakers and audiences were in hearty accord. Dexter is wide awake and will be heard from satisfactorily on Monday next.

"HON. J. C. MADIGAN IS LOOKING UP DOUBTFUL DEMOCRATIC SHEEP IN MADAWASKA."—Houlton Pioneer, Sept. 7.

For the process of "looking up," see official reports of Hon. J. S. Pike and Hon. E. L. Hamlin on Madigan's Madawaska operations in 1858.

POLITICS IN ETNA. A correspondent writes that there was a fine turn-out on Monday, to listen to the speeches of Llewellyn Powers, Esq., and Gen. John L. Swift. The hall was crowded and many were obliged to stand, but the interest was closely maintained and the speakers were greeted with the most hearty applause. Our correspondent, who is one of the leading citizens of the place, notifies us to make room for Etna on the right side of the returns next Monday evening.

If the Democrats should be worse whipped in Maine than they were last year, such a result will fall on the October elections and aid the Republicans everywhere in their endeavors to recover lost ground.—New York Herald.

Murry, the Waterville saloon-keeper, disapproves of Fred. Douglass, whereat that distinguished gentleman will doubtless be heavily grieved.

A Washington dispatch says a number of bets have been made on the Ohio election on a basis of the election of Gen. Hayes as Governor, and of the Republican State ticket by a majority of twenty-five thousand. The Democrats are not anxious to accept bets at these figures.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

NEW YORK CITY.

Strictures on the Boston Post Office

NEW YORK, August 7 A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says the Boston Post Office is referred to by the Post Office officials in the Department as one who have made themselves notorious by a period of many months as being the worst managed office in the country There is no want of testimony to establish this charge, and this testimony is represented to be within the knowledge of the Postmaster General So far is known no other charge than that of inattentiveness and negligence is made Mr. Jewell asks that what Mr. Burleigh has to offer relative to the Department be confined to the facts, that he has nothing to say

Death by Brutal Treatment

The coroner's jury to-day in the case of Michael Connolly who it is alleged, came to his death by brutal treatment at the hands of the keeper of the Penitentiary, rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by softening of the brain accelerated by brutal treatment at the hands of the keepers Patrick Cox, James Connolly, Edward M Price and Thomas Hurley and exonerating Thomas Rollo and James M Boyle The verdict has embodied the Commissioners of Charities and the Warden of the Penitentiary have more care in the selection of keepers and also in the proper treatment of prisoners who may be ill.

CALIFORNIA.

Important Tax Decision.

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 7 In the Eighth District Court yesterday a decision was given against the city in a test case of property in Hayes Valley The case is one involving altogether from $500 to $600 000, and will probably be appealed

California Pacific

In the case of the German bondholders against the California Pacific Railroad it is announced today that a settlement was made outside of the Court It is understood that the terms are the same as offered in the bondholders in force litigation.

Bulmer & Defalcation

The Agent of the Associated Press here says that Mills does not deny the statement attributed to him in the despatches of Saturday relative to Ralston's defalcation and over issue of stock As regards the statement that an assignment to Sharon of property covers the debt leaving two millions surplus the fact is it is doubtful if the assignment will cover the defalcation It is not to be supposed that these things affect the prospect of resumption, as they have been taken into consideration in the arrangements in progress

Notes Redeemed.

The Treasury to-day redeemed notes of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company to the amount of $75 000

Public Demonstration by Ralston's Friends

NEW YORK, Sept 7 A special to the Herald says the meeting of the friends of Ralston for Wednesday evening is developing into a tolerable gathering, and arrangements are made for addresses in Union Hall and on the street to 50,000 people A statement of the affairs of Ralston in connection with the bank will be made by Col W. H. Barnes who will also, as a personal friend of Ralston, deliver an address on the deceased Resolutions of condolence with the family of Ralston will be offered One member of the Congress will then deliver a eulogy on the life and services to California and the Pacific coast of the ex-head banker An eminent clergyman will open with prayer and the proceedings conducted solemnly in order that the country may know that it is not the gathering of an excited rabble, but the expression of the calm and deliberate judgment of the friends of Mr. Ralston The Rev Dr Stone Sunday night spoke so highly of Mr Ralston that the congregation burst out with applause The papers from every quarter are teeming with editorials and correspondence in his praise and a fund for subscription for a monument to his memory is proposed

The San Francisco Election.

The full city returns give the following results of the election The Independents have elected the Assessor, District Attorney City and County Attorneys Chief of Police, Coroner, Public Administrator, Superintendent of Schools and the four Supervisors Otherwise the Democrats have made a clean sweep, electing Bryant Mayor, eight Supervisors, with the entire State, Congressional and Legislative ticket.

INDIAN TERRITORY.

An International Exhibition.

MEDGOURA, Sept 7. There will be a full representation of all the Indian tribes at the International Fair to be held Sept. 14th to the 18th. School children from one or more schools in each of the Six Nations are expected to be present and compete for a $25 premium for the best essay. The U S. Government, at the request of Major Ingalls of the Union Agency, has made allowances to provide for them while here, and also to feed the delegations that may be present from all the wild tribes. Numerous and large contributions of stock and manufactures have been made by citizens of Missouri and Kansas for the benefit of Indian exhibitors.

NEW ENGLAND FAIRS.

Opening Day.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 7. The 12th annual fair of the New England Agricultural Society, which this year co-operates with the New Hampshire Society, opens at Riding Park in this city at 10 o clock today The weather is most favorable and there is every reason to anticipate a successful exhibition. Entries in all departments are unusually large and the show of blooded stock very fine. Racing commences to-morrow afternoon with the 2.40 class.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Quarreling Democrats

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 6. A street encounter took place this evening between Hans Good of this city and Henry A. Walker of the Charleston Courier, two prominent Democratic politicians, in which Walker was struck several times about the head with a cane and discharged his revolver at Good in return. The summer term of the Bradley Grammar School was taught by Miss E. P. Southard and closed Aug 26th. The whole number of scholars was 40, and the average attendance 36. The names of scholars neither absent or tardy are Ira M. Sinclair Hattie H. Holbrook, Annie M. Tarr and George Morse The term has been a pleasant and successful one.

CORRECTION. The item in yesterday's issue concerning the sad death of Mr. Charles Dorr, of Orland, in its hasty wording was susceptible to misconstruction. We should have stated that the attack of diarrhœa which proved fatal was partially attributed to drinking a glass of pop beer and eating a number of peaches. The death occurred a week ago last Sunday, and the deceased was a very temperate and worthy young man, being at the time of his death the President of a Temperance Club at his home.

SERENADES. The Police and Sheriffs madness raid on the "Devil's Halfacre" yesterday morning, took about a dozen warrants, and made a thorough search of all the premises. They succeeded in capturing six kegs of ale a number of demijohns together with a large number of bottles. The Sheriffs also seized a barrel containing a twenty gallon keg of rum, in the express car at the Maine Central depot marked J. M. S.; also several small packages for private individuals which will undoubtedly be returned.

WATER WORKS PIPES. Twenty hydrants have been put in place and they will begin to cover the valves with boxes. Workmen finished covering the pipes on Hancock street yesterday. Nearly 300 trenchers have been lying idle, but will resume work to-day, as the schooner Maine has arrived, loaded with four and a half miles of pipe. Workmen will begin laying the pipes on Centre street to-day, as soon as they are discharged. Trenching will commence on Kenduskeag stream to-day. Another cargo of pipes is being loaded and will arrive before this cargo has been put into the ground.

A PANDORA TESTIMONIAL. A complimentary testimonial from the Novelty Lodge Knights of Pythias to the Lodge Brunswick and Union Lodge K. of P. of St. Joseph, was an exhibition in the Webber window on Kenduskeag bridge yesterday afternoon The testimonial was written by Mr. H. C. Kendall, of Boston, and is executed very finely. It tenders the thanks of the Novelty Lodge K. of P. to their brothers in St. John for the courtesies extended to them during their recent visit. It has been elegantly framed by Mr. Clarence Dolan and will be forwarded to St. John to-day.

SAD CASE OF DESTITUTION. The following sad case of destitution we copy from the Sunday Herald: "About 4 o'clock on a recent morning Officer Eaton, of Jersey City, found a very neatly dressed girl, not yet sixteen years of age, and a young man about nineteen, sleeping in a coal cart. He took them to the station house, where they gave their names as Thomas Reed and Mabel A Reed. They said they were husband and wife. The girl said that her parents were well-to-do residents of Bangor, Maine, that she became acquainted with Thomas and seven months ago married him. He came to Jersey City in search of work, she accompanying him. He had found none, and they were penniless. They roamed hungry about the streets until finally they lay down to sleep where they were found." We have no knowledge of the parties here.

Sekenger.

Pittsfield Campmeeting.

The campmeeting at Pittsfield on the morning of the third day assumed a new appearance The number of small tents have increased to more than twenty-five, and for the first time a large tent is erected in the centre of the circle made by the small tents. This pavilion will accommodate about 300 people and at 10½ o'clock this morning it was nearly filled to hear the preaching. The meeting was opened with singing by the multitude, then prayer by the Rev. S. K. Patridge after which a sermon was preached by Rev Mr. Ryne The speaker took for his text Romans 17-12. He said it was one of the best texts in the Bible It had four special points First, the condition the world, that is night; second, the condition of the world as it will be, that is day. The speaker said that the Advent of Christ was near at hand yet darkness covered the world and division reigned in its own church. It was pronounced one of the best sermons yet delivered, and many looked pleased to hear such able and spirited address. The crowd is increasing and the interest growing more intense. H.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL KIMBALL

The Oxford Democrat gives full particulars of the death of General W K Kimball, of Paris, by a pistol wound inflicted by himself. It appears that on Thursday, before dinner his son passed through the room and saw him lying on the bed. He did not notice anything unusual in his appearance. After dinner he again entered the room, and found him breathing heavily—and then noticed blood on his head and that he held a pistol in his hand. They were obliged to summon a physician from South Paris. Dr. Brown being absent from home, General K. lived about twenty minutes after the arrival of the physician. On the table was a carefully written letter signed by the deceased. He said "There is no need for a coroner. I know what I am about. I am a narrow-stricken man, of no use to myself nor to my family. I go to the front as a volunteer, not willing to be drafted by the grim messenger. God forgive me the sin if it is a sin." An inquest was held Friday and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts. A friend of the deceased writes the Democrat as follows:

"It is evident that despondency, occasioned by financial embarrassment and political disappointment, led to this fatal result. General Kimball had been recently appointed Inspector of Customs at Portland. From an examination of his papers since his death, it appears that his appointment had hastened and unduly together with financial embarrassments are the only causes that may be assigned for this sad act."

General Kimball was about 55 years of age. He had served in the Legislature, as County Attorney, U. S. Marshal under Buchanan, and early in the war enlisted as Lieut. Col. of the 12th Maine. On his return he was chosen Clerk of Courts and who last winter appointed a member of the Constitutional Commission. He was a brother-in-law of James F. Rawson, Esq., of this city, and leaves a widow and several children.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The Springfield Union is so much pleased with Judge Hoar's Old Orchard speech that it says. "Why not take the Judge for centennial Governor!

"Twenty thousand votes in the State are what that nomination will cost us," was the remark of a thoughtful Democrat when "S. Geghan" was nominated by the Cincinnati Democracy.

While the Democrats of Ohio are fighting for repudiation, under the name of expansion, their brethren in Maine are stout advocates for specie resumption. Their main effort is to prove that the Republicans will not bring about the end as fully as they Which shall be trusted as simon-pure exponents of Democracy, those of Maine or those of Ohio?—Cincinnati Gazette.

The Kentucky Republicans feel pretty well over the result of the recent State election there, although the Democratic candidate for Governor was elected by 30,131 majority. The Republicans made gains over the vote of 1871 in six of the ten Congressional Districts, their gains ranging from 172 to 2,037, and they make a net gain on the State vote of 1871 of 975.

To show how some of the leading Catholic organs talk, we quote the following from the Western Catholic of Chicago

"No sound Catholic will enter a Protestant church, or have his child go to any but an occasional or Catholic school. Neither a Protestant school, nor one in which religion is ignored suits a Catholic parent or child. The former would rather allow the latter to grow up in ignorance of the alphabet than enter such a place."

Good at Garfield, at the close of his first speech in Ohio, said.

"Whether we wish it to be so or not, the present contest in Ohio is the first great preliminary skirmish of the Presidential campaign. We have entered the centennial period, when the memories of our origin as a nation are thronging thick upon us. It should be an epoch of peace and good will—but it should be filled with the spirit of 1776—with a purpose to realize the hopes and aspirations of the great founders! The indications are abundant that the great jubilee is bringing to us with renewed force the lessons they taught and the principles they cherished. In spite of all the faults and blunders of the Republican party, it cannot be doubted that it comes far nearer the standard of 1776 than the reactionary and disordered Democracy, which is striving to regain its lost power."

DISEASE OF THE HEART CURED.

WESTPORT, DIGBY CO., April 4, 1870.

JAMES L. FELLOWES, ESQ.—Dear Sir: I have been for many years a victim to heart disease and prostration of the system generally. Having tried physicians of eminence, both in Europe and America, and obtaining no relief, I was at last induced to try your valuable Syrup, and am happy to say with the best results.

On taking the first bottle my complaint was better, and before the fourth was finished I was completely cured.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &c.

The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of Indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, &c.

These pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and are more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and exhilarates the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of Consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner SIXTH and ARCH Sts., Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. Schenck's medicines for sale by all Druggists. eod1m sep1

LIFE'S AFTERMATH.

It was late summer, and the grain in each
Had grown ripe and golden, yet I, by with and I,
Ay life in it alone with the reaping hand by,
Stubly we listened to a plaintive ballad,
Sung by a fair maid to a happy swain;—
All said deed days remembered made us sigh,
And brought the tear drop to my wife's blue eye.
If spring be past, I said, "shall love remain?"

She moved saide—yet soon she answered me,
As her gaze turned responsive to mine own,
Spring days are gone, and yet the grass we see
Time a ready spring hath grown;
Dear love just as lovers afternoon may be
A richer growth than our spring days have known."

—Trubley's Magazine

RUTH'S STEPFATHER.

A curious trade to take to, but then it has grown to be profitable. Things were at a low ebb with me when I took it up, while now ——

There, I won't boast, only say that I'm thankful for it. Poverty comes in at the door and love flies out of the window, so they say; but that's all nonsense, or else your poor people would be always miserable, while according to my experience your poor folks often more light-hearted than the man with thousands.

I was at my wits' end for something to do and sat nibbling my nails and grumbling horribly.

Don't go on like that, Tom," say my wife, "things might be worse."

How? I said.

Why we might have Luke at home and he's doing well.

Luke's our boy you know, and we had got him into a merchant's office, where he seemed likely to stay. But I was in a grumbling fit then, and there was a clickety-click noise going on in the next room that fidgeted me terribly.

Things can't be worse," I said angrily; and I was going to prove myself in the wrong by making my wife cry, when there was a knock at the door.

Come in, I said, and a fellow ledger put in his head.

Are you good at works, Mr Smith?" he said.

What works? I said, fireworks—gas-works?

No no, I mean works of things as goes with wheels and springs.

Machine I said, for I was fond of pulling clocks to pieces and trying to mend them.

I wish you'd come and look at this sewing machine of mine. For I can't get it to go.

Sewing-machines, sport, never so in those days; and I was no hand at a book, all the same I thought an hour's tinkering about, I began to see a bit the reason why—the poor, you know, of all the screws and cranks and wheels, I found out, too, why our neighbor's wife, who was a dressmaker and had just started one, could not get it to go and before night by tinkering and putting this and that together, had got her in the way of working it pretty steadily though with my clumsy fingers I couldn't sew a stitch to save my life.

Well, I'm sick of dinner and tea with those people and they forced half-a-pound upon me as well and I went back feeling like a new man, so refreshing had been that bit of work.

Back—sudden wife. I told you something would come.

Well I've, I said, "but the something is rather small."

But the news next day—as we were lingering the middle of people who were fast taking to sewing machines—at the folks room in the house in the yard as to look it over—and then the news spread fast, as news will—proved that there was somebody who could tinkle and tinker machinery without putting people to the expense that makes would. A the gets dull. Come in Tom, I'm tired of getting files and drills and wire—repairing all details by it goes and at last I was as busy as a bee in a mummy to night by and whistling over my work as happy as a lark.

Do miser every now and then I got a breaking. But I could generally get over that by finding a new wheel or spindle or what not. Next we got to supplying shuttle cars for fire and machine cotton. Soon after I bought a machine of a man who was tired out. A week I sold it at a good profit. Bought another and another, and sold them as fast as I got to taking them and money in exchange for new ones and one way and the other I had a regular big order in process.

Hundred. Why now second-hand and with the sewing requirements of the much to do at Head Office hundred on the premises while I was hobbit hold of the for a rise to get it I should be doing this? should have laughed at him.

That pretty go showing and explaining the machine to a customer. That—Bath! that's me, not my daughter—yes, but she soon will be. Poor girl! I always think of her and of the great throw upon the world at the same time.

Curious idea that you'll ask as but I'll tell you why.

In our trade we have strange people to deal with. Most of our the poor, and can't pay down right off, but are ready and willing to pay so much a week. That's the idea of many one if they only keep the payments up to the end.

Well we have some people but some of the models do that. Some offhand leave their belongings and forever see them again on the most curious parts that the sewing machine has disappeared with them, and I never see them again. Many a one too that has disappointed like that I do see my belongings—bits of them, brought here by some poor fellow, patched up or exchanged for a bigger or for one of a different maker; for in you look round here you'll see I've got all kinds—new and old little domestics and big trades. There too may many an hour on and so if I don't bring you out one of my works.

Well when I ask these people who are they get the machine—for I always know them by the number—it turns out they've bought it through an advertisement or at a sales room or single out of pawnbrokers shop.

But I send plenty of honest people to deal with too—Chris, what course straight forward and told me they couldn't keep up their payments and asked me to take them back. Why, I allow them as much as I thought fair and would be in the right exact transaction.

The work I've been putting through is some folks—but my life and case-hardened that sometimes I don't know whether I've got an heart at all, and it will be hard to interfere, telling me I've been squeezed with prosperity nor driven quite long.

If was she made me give way about Ruth for one—by after having my bristles all set up by reading that three good sound machines by first makers, had gone no body knows where, who should come into the shop but a lady like looking woman in shabby widow's weeds. She wanted a machine for herself and daughter to learn and said that she had heard that I would take the money by instalments. Now just hit all those before, as our shop looks, I had more than I'd give up all the parcel the trade and I was very rough with her—first as I am when I'm cross—said and No.

But you will if the lady gives security, says my wife tartly.

The poor widow gave such a woe-begone look at us that it made me more out of temper than ever for I could tell that if I stopped I should have to let her have one at her own terms. And so it was, for there, if I didn't let her have a first-class machine, as good as new, she only paying seven and six down and undertaking to pay half a crown a week, and no more security than nothing.

To make it worse, too, if I didn't send the thing home without charge. Luke going with it, for he was back at home now helping my hands, being grown into a fine fellow of five and twenty and I sat and growled the whole of the rest of the day, calling myself all the weak-minded idiots under the sun and telling the wife that business was going to the dogs, and I should be ruined.

You ought to be ashamed of yourself, Tom," she said.

So I am," says I. "I didn't think I could be such a fool.

Such a fool as to do a good kind action to one who was evidently a lady born and come down in the world."

Yes," I say, "to hand in Bennett's place where I've sunk no less than ten machines in five years."

Yes," says the wife and cleared hundreds of pounds. Tom, I am ashamed of you—you a man with twenty workmen busy upstairs, a couple of thousand pounds worth of stock, and in the bank ——"

Hold you tongue, will you!" I said roughly, and went out into the shop to try and work it all off.

Luke came back soon after looking very strange, and I was at him directly.

Where's the seven an' six?" says I angrily.

He didn't answer, but put three half crowns down on the desk, took out the book and made his entries—date of delivery, first payment, when the others due, and all the rest of it—and was then going into the house.

Mind," I says, sharply, "these payments are to be kept up to the day; and mornorow you go to Molly's, who live nearly opposite to 'em to keep an eye on the widow, or we shall lose another machine."

You needn't be afraid father," he says, coldly, "they'll honest enough; only, poor widow, I was just in the humor that I wanted to quarrel with somebody, and that did it.

When I ask you for your opinion, young man, you give it to me, and when I tell you to do a thing, you do it," I says, in as savage a way as I ever spoke to the lad "You go over to-morrow and tell Molly's to keep a strick lookout on those people—do you hear?"

Father," he says, looking me full in the face, "I couldn't insult them by doing such a thing," when without another word he walked quietly out of the shop leaving me worse than ever.

For that boy had never spoken to me like that before, and I should have gone after him feeling mad like, only some people came in, and I didn't see him again till evening, and a good thing too, for I'm sure I should have said all sorts of things to the boy that I should have been sorry for after. And then I was fuming and fretting about, savage with everybody, giving short answers, snapping at the wife, and feeling as a man does feel when he knows that he has been in the wrong and hasn't the heart to go and own it.

It was about eight o'clock that I was sitting by the parlor fire with the wife working and very quiet, when Luke came in from the workshop with a book under his arm for he had been fobbing up the men's piecework, and what was due to them and the sight of him made me feel as if I must quarrel.

He saw it too, but he said nothing only put the accounts away and began to read.

(To be concluded.)

A Hint to the Lean.

The cause of leanness when there is no positive disease which produces it is in that feeble assimilation of the food. The weight of the body is doubtedly been a natural relation, and never so important only to its height, when it is properly nourished with flesh making blood. Hence, when we see a tall person with stalk sides and hollow cheeks, we have a right to infer that his blood is thin and watery and his constitution delicate. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a delicate cordial to this delicate, people. Since it strengthens the digestive and assimilative organs, and is consequently a powerful auxiliary in the blood manufacturing processes, which in a state of health ought to be, and are, mainly instrumental in the increase of muscle, as well as fat, is a result of using this sovereign fluid, unsoiled, in preference to a generally corrective cordial.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Pursuant to warrants from the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Bangor, the duly qualified electors of said City are hereby notified to meet in their respective Ward Rooms, on Monday, the thirteenth day of September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to give in their votes for Governor, Senator in Congress and six Representatives to the Legislature, County Commissioner, County Treasurer, and also to give in their votes upon the following questions, viz: Shall the Constitution of the State of Maine be amended as proposed by Resolves of the Legislature, Approved February twenty fourth, A. D., 1875, to wit:

REMITTON OF SENATORS BY PLURALITY VOTE

Senators shall be elected by a plurality of the votes given in by the qualified electors.

Sections four and five of Article four, Part second, of the constitution are amended, by striking out the word "majority," wherever it occurs in said sections, and inserting instead thereof the word "plurality."

REGULATING TO SPECIAL LEGISLATION AND CORPORATIONS

Amend Article four, Part second, of the constitution, by adding thereto the following sections.

Section 16. The Legislature shall from time to time, provide for the prosecution, by general laws, for all matters usually appertaining to special or private legislation.

Section 17. Corporations shall be formed under general laws, and shall not be created by special acts of the Legislature, except for municipal purposes, and in cases where the objects of the corporation cannot otherwise be attained, and however formed, they shall forever be subject to the general laws of the State.

POWER OF GOVERNOR TO PARDON

Article five, Part first, section eleven, shall be amended by striking out all said section, and inserting the word "reprieves," and by adding the words, the following: "Commutations and pardons, except in cases of impeachment, shall be granted, and with such restrictions and limitations as may be deemed proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law, relative to the manner of applying for pardons. And he shall communicate to the legislature, at each session thereof, each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon, granted, stating the offence for which the reprieve, commutation or pardon was granted, the sentence and its date, the date of the reprieve, commutation or pardon, and the reasons, if any, upon which the same was granted."

ABOLISHMENT OF WRONGFUL OR MENTAL AND POLICE COURTS

The constitution shall be amended, by striking out sections eight of Article six, and inserting the following

Section 8. Judges of municipal and police courts shall be appointed by the executive power, in the same manner as other judicial officers, and shall hold their offices for the term of four years, provided, however, that the present municipal shall hold their offices for the term for which they were elected.

TAXATION.

Section eight of Article nine shall be amended, by inserting after the word "real," "or personal" so that the section as amended shall read as follows

Section 8. All taxes upon real and personal estate, assessed by authority of this State, shall be apportioned and assessed equably, according to the just value thereof.

Said Article shall be further amended, by adding the following

Section 11. The legislature shall never, in any manner, suspend or surrender the power of taxation.

ABOLISHING LAND AGENCY.

Section one of Article nine, of the amendments, is hereby amended, by striking out the words "land agent and."

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Article four, Part third, shall be amended by adding thereto section nine, as follows:

"The Legislature shall, by a two thirds concurrent vote of both branches, have the power to call constitutional conventions for the purpose of amending the constitution."

DISTRICT AT ELECTIONS.

The Legislature may enact laws excluding the right of suffrage, for a term not exceeding ten years, all persons convicted of bribery in any election, or of voting at any election, under the influence of a bribe.

COMPILATION OF THE AMENDED CONSTITUTION

Article 10. Section six of Article ten shall be amended by striking out the same, and inserting instead thereof the following:

Section 6. After the amendments proposed herewith shall have been submitted to popular vote, the chief justice of the Supreme Judicial Court shall arrange the constitution, as amended under the appropriate titles, and in proper articles, parts and sections, omitting all sections, words and clauses not, in force, and making no other changes in the provisions of language thereof, and he shall submit the same to the Legislature at its next session. And the drafting arrangement, when approved by the legislature, shall be enrolled on parchment and deposited in the office of the Secretary of State, and printed laws shall be printed to the books containing the laws of the State. And the constitution with the amendments made thereon, in accordance with the provisions thereof, shall be the supreme law of the State.

Section 7. Sections one, two and five of Article ten of the existing constitution shall hereafter be considered as not repealed, but as thereof printed in the laws of the State, but this shall not impair the validity of acts under these sections, and said section five shall be in full force as part of the constitution, according to the stipulations of said section, with the same effect as if contained in said printed copies.

The places of meetings are as follows, viz.

Ward One, at the school house corner of York and Black streets, in said Ward.

Ward Two, at the City Hall, in said Ward.

Ward Three, at the school house on Pond street, in said Ward.

Ward Four, at the Grand Jury Room, in the Court House, in said Ward.

Ward Five, at the school house corner State and Pine streets, in said Ward.

Ward Six, at the school house on Spring street, in said Ward.

Ward Seven, at the school house on Solem Court, in said Ward.

The Aldermen of said City will be in open session at the City Hall, from nine o'clock in the forenoon to one o'clock in the afternoon, and from three o'clock to five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day of said three secular days, for the purpose of receiving qualification of voters whose names have one been entered on the list of qualified voters, in the several Wards and for correcting the list.

Per Order,

JOHN H. HAYES, City Clerk.

Sept. 4, 1875.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned, guardian of David S. James & Isabel Annie M. Brown F. Ford Merrick, minor heirs of Ellen W. Hilton, late of Bangor, in said county, deceased, respectfully represents that said minors are seized and possessed of the following described real estate, viz: Their share in the late homestead of said Ellen Whitney, in Bangor.

That it would be for the benefit of said minors that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof put to the interest or otherwise used for their benefit.

He therefore prays that license may be granted him to sell and convey the above described real estate at public or private sale, according to the requirements of the law.

JOHN S. WHITTIER.

August 31, 1875.

STATE OF MAINE

PENOBSCOT, ss. Court of Probate, August Term, A. D. 1875.

Upon the accompanying petition, ORDERED, That said petitioner give public notice to all persons interested, by causing a copy of the petition, and this order thereon, to be published three weeks successively in the Bangor Weekly Courier, a newspaper published in Bangor, in said county, that they may appear at a Court of Probate for said county, to be held at the Probate Office in in Bangor, on the last Tuesday in September next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

JOHN E. GODFREY, Judge.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can ship have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is left on the Office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M. Also open evenings from 7½ to 8½ P. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name or business of the addressee in the upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department (samples of which may be seen at the Bangor Post Office), when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if uncalimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's place, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure the stamped envelopes and letter paper, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

Plain stamped envelopes of above furnished at $2.50 per thousand.

Stamps not from Stamped Envelopes

cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamps and stamped envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this place.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE

All Letters must be Prepaid—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or fraction. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on the average weight of the published edition for one week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

Monthly periodicals, when delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters, papers, etc., transient printed matter, merchandise limited to 4 oz., postage 10 cents.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

One cent an ounce, or fraction, weight limited to four pounds. Liquids, and anything that will injure mail excluded. All matter of this class must be wrapped, so as to be examined, without disturbing wrappers.

ADVERTISED LETTERS

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington.

MONEY ORDERS

Especial attention is called to the Money Order System, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time, by additional orders.

RATES

On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents
" over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents
" over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents
" over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and German states.

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order.

If money is to be returned, a Postal Money Order should be obtained. If upon points where there is no Money Order Office, the Order should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter.

Office Hours—From 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT.

All valuable letters should be Registered, unless a Money Order is obtained. Under the present system of Registration, letters are transmitted with perfect safety.

The Leading Journal

EASTERN MAINE.

We have now one of the best appointed newspaper offices in the State, have made important additions to our Editorial, Reportorial and Correspondence corps, and are in every way prepared to furnish our patrons with a

FIRST CLASS DAILY NEWSPAPER.

With facilities at our command we hope to make this favorite newspaper more interesting and acceptable during the coming year than ever before. Our connection with the ASSOCIATED PRESS, by which we receive the whole of their dispatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

Full Reports

of the proceedings of Congress, the State Legislature, meetings of Agricultural Societies and other public bodies, carefully corrected Financial and Market Reports, a reliable Shipping List, original and selected Stories and Poetry, a large amount of miscellaneous and interesting Miscellany, and a very full department of

News of This Section and the State.

In politics the paper will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent in the manner and best sense of the word. While fearless and outspoken in its treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what it believes to be right, it will avoid intolerance, and make its appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year promises to open with the fruitful of political events of importance bearing upon the future of the country, and it will be our aim to keep our readers thoroughly informed, and to favor such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people. The great interests of

of Maine will receive special attention and all the influence of the paper will be exerted in stimulating the growth and prosperity of our beloved State. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will find

A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being among the best classes of the people, and as

The Only Morning Daily East of the Kennebec.

this paper affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine. On the first of January the paper will appear in

An Entirely New Dress,

but with all its best features retained and with such improvements as we trust will insure an increase of that support which it has hitherto enjoyed.

TERMS, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE:

$8 per annum; $4 for 6 mos.; $2 for 3 mos.

The new postal law compelling prepayment of postage, imposes a heavy burden on the Publishers, but we have decided to make no extra charge over our established subscription price, and will send the paper
